Provincial Superior

Sisters of Saint Ann of Providence,

PRAYER TO THE FOUNDERS

God our Father, we give you thanks because through your spirit, you have gifted to the Church in the married couple Carlo Tancredi and Giulia di Barolo a sublime example of Christian perfection. Their nuptial love, vivified by faith and sustained by prayer, has led them to make of their riches a gift of love towards others, especially in the field of education of the young generations. We ask you now through their joint intercession to grant us the grace we need... and that we may soon see their sanctity recognized, as to invoke them as our protectors and imitate them as models of evangelical life, through Christ our Lord Amen

+ Severino Poletto

SISTERS OF ST. ANN OF PROVIDENCE

St. Ann Pray for us

Carlo Tancredi and Giulia De Barolo, Mother Churchetta

Congregation of the Sisters of St. Ann of Providence founded in the year 1834 at Turin, Italy, lives under the care of Divine Providence, the heart of its identity, and is entrusted to the protection of St. Ann, model of a mother and educator, having the Motto - "In Spe" (In Hope). Thanks to the work of a married couple, Carlo Tancredi Falletti and Giulia Colbert the Marquis and Marchioness of Barolo. We keep impressed in our minds and hearts that we are destined to glorify God through our service to the little ones and the poor. God calls us to be instruments of His Providence, witnesses of his Mercy and Signs of Hope.

The Congregation further developed under the leadership of Mother Mary Emichetta Dominici, who was elected as the Superior General of the Congregation in 1861 and served in that office until 1894. Under her inspiration, the Sisters embraced the concept of worldwide service, and in 1871 the first Sisters of St. Ann were sent as missionaries to India. Mother Emichetta was a woman with her gaze turned to "God Alone", she lived in His presence with the confidence and simplicity of daughter. She sought the will of God in everything and abandoned herself to His will, becoming by her very life, a hymn of praise to the Most Holy Trinity.
