

ST. ANN'S HIGH SCHOOL NELAMANGALA, BENGALURU.

St. Ann's High School Nelamangala, Bengaluru, started by the Sisters of St. Ann's of Providence in 1998, is a minority educational institution as per the Constitution of India, Article Number 30(1). St. Ann's of Providence Congregation was founded by Marquis Carlo Tancredi of Barolo and Marchioness Giulia Colbert of Italy in 1834 and established St. Ann's campus in Nelamangala in 1990 with its main thrust for the education of youth in India as persons imbued with deep faith in God and in themselves by providing sound Catholic education over the past hundred and ninety years of its existence. St. Ann's has expanded with a large number of educational establishments in India and other countries. In Karnataka, it runs under the auspicious name of the St. Ann Educational Society (R). While fulfilling our objectives as a Christian minority institution for the education of the minority, our institutions are also open to all irrespective of religion, caste and creed. However, in keeping with the aims and philosophy of the Catholic institution and the charism of our Founders and Co-Founder Blessed Mother Enrichetta Dominici of Turin, Italy, who cared for the poor and the orphaned, we have a special concern for the disadvantaged and marginalized sections of society through our education.

Timeline:

The Former Provincial Rev. Sr. Charlotte Sequeira played a key role in the establishment and development of the Institution. St. Ann's High School was established in the year 1999. Rev. Sr. Charlotte took the initiative to carry out this process with the vision of empowering young children through professional education in the same year.
